

Wamphyric Feeding: The Art of the Vampiric Tendril Revisited

To feed upon other humans as a predator feeds upon prey is a lost art in today's world of Egalitarianism and disgusting concepts such as "human rights". Creating a free-for-all "Barney & Friends" I love you, you love me Nazarene trash breed of human. Who so often ends up obese, queer, and racially traitorous or ambiguous. It is nothing more than that of a Jewish pipe-dream in essence to create the horrific disgusting age of the Messiah. Yeshua himself is said to be burning in a vat of stool in Hell in the Talmud. Rightfully so. If there was one action the Jews did right it was to entice the Romans to put an end to that disgusting piece of shit whose name disgusts me so much I cannot even wrap my tendrils around it enough to pronounce it.

When you have successfully fed upon another human being in the waking state as a Noctulian better known as the synthesis of the Satanist & Vampiric predator – you should see a variety of physical symptoms occur. Personally have witnessed individuals swatting around the air as if a pack of mosquitoes were feeding upon them. For the Vampiric tendril is much like an astral syringe and relieves the intended blutopfer of their Blood Essence or acausal animating life force. Causing an influx of acausal energy into your causal body. Babies and children when fed upon will cry. And those who are of a higher nobility such as Royalty themselves – as yours truly once upon a time had the opportunity to feed upon the Queen herself (or rather her daughter) there is a higher taste. Those who are often of a lower intelligence and fitness level do not offer the succulent Blood Essence we so desire as Wamphyri.

There are a variety of methods to use the tendril both in the sleeping and waking state. Primarily I have fed actively in the waking state but have also in the process become astrally aware such that when I have episodes of Sleep Paralysis I am able to not only fend off my attackers but also feed upon them. Whether they are human or inhuman makes no difference to me. Although entering the state known to the plebeian masses as "lucid dreaming" one can also feed upon the sleeping human.

Certain hand gestures or mudras are associated with increased and productive feeding. However, you must have a certain anger towards the intended Opfer. And you must visualize not only the protruding horror of the tendril which is very much like the black root of the shapeless chaos of Atazoth – who himself feeds upon aspirants and is often incorrectly identified as the Blood Pool or Undead himself. The truth is Atazoth is the "God of the Gods" and the God of the Undead. Who Noctulius is one such Earth-bound representative associated with the Full Moon whose pleasure concubine Lilith is associated with the New Moon. Which is also associated with certain vicious predatory alienic life who are commanded by the Dark God Shugara – said to be the most hideous intrusion of the acausal into the causal and for good reason any working with Shugara is not only dangerous to the psyche but to the physical body and any life surrounding you.

Our Dark Goddess herself Baphomet and her dark daughters are Vampresses who prey upon the hubris of males with the patriarchal might is right ethos as reflected in such works of Greek tragedy as Oedipus Tyrannous – and here most suitably the translation by David W. Myatt is recommended. In essence you can prolong your own youth and life by Vampiric feeding and speed up the Alchemical change process offered by the Sevenfold Way. Following both the Sevenfold Way with the path of Vampirism or that of the Rounwytha will make you a Son of Samael or Daughter of Baphomet yourself.

Myself I am a mature woman in her 50s who has traversed the path until the stage of Sol. In essence becoming beyond good and evil and beyond human. My eyes reflect my soul or lack thereof and my medusa-esqe gaze has turnt many men to “stone”.
